SUPPLEMENTAL DECLARATION

I, John S. Sensny, declare that:

1. I am an attorney registered to practice before the United States Patent and Trademark Office. My registration number is 28,757. I am a partner at Scully, Scott, Murphy & Presser, PC.
2. I prepared the subject patent application prior to October 5, 2000.
3. On October 4, 2000, I sent the patent application to Daniel P. Morris, Esq. to have the inventors sign the application. A copy of the application as it was sent on October 4, 2000 and a copy of the accompanying letter to Mr. Morris are submitted herewith as Exhibit 1.
4. The inventors, Dimitri Kanevsky and Alexander Zlatsin, executed the application on or about October 5, 2000, and the application was then returned to Scully, Scott, Murphy & Presser. A copy of the executed Declaration, showing that it was signed on October 5, 2000, is submitted herewith as Exhibit 2.

5. After receipt of the application, employees of Scully, Scott, Murphy and Presser actively worked to prepare the application for filing with the Patent and Trademark Office, and the application was filed on November 6, 2000.
6. Exhibit 3 submitted herewith is a copy of the transmittal letter to the Patent Office that was sent with the application.
7. Exhibit 4 submitted herewith is a copy of the filing receipt from the Patent Office for the application, showing that the application has been accorded a filing date of November 6, 2000.

I hereby declare that all statements made herein of our my knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and further that these statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or any patent issued thereon.
